

RADIAL STANDARD TERMS

(Rev. 04/2026)

These Radial Standard Terms (these “Standard Terms”) together with the Fulfillment Services Agreement (“FSA”) and the Joint Planning Session document (the “JPS”) shall govern Radial’s provision of the Services to the Company. The Standard Terms, the FSA and the JPS are collectively referred to as the “Agreement”. These Standard Terms are available at www.Radial.com/Legal.

1. SERVICES

1.1 Services. Radial will perform the services as described in the FSA and JPS (the “Services”).

1.2 Special Handling and Shipping Requirements. The Company shall advise Radial in writing of any merchandise that is required to be shipped as hazardous materials (“Haz-Mat Shipments”), including the appropriate classification of such Haz-Mat Shipments through the item master or similar feed prior to arrival in Radial’s facility, is required to be shipped with special shipping/handling requirements such as fragile (“Fragile Shipments”), is subject to restrictions regarding its sale and/or distribution, is required to include any disclaimers, labeling or similar notices, and all similar information. If Company fails to do so, Company shall indemnify Radial for any resulting fines, costs, or fees arising from or related to such shipments.

1.3 Regulated Goods. Unless contemplated in the JPS, the Company agrees and acknowledges that it will not send to Radial’s fulfillment center, and Radial will not be obligated to accept into, or distribute from, its fulfillment center, any merchandise that (i) is perishable or consumable, or (ii) would require Radial’s fulfillment center to be registered with the FDA (Food and Drug Administration) or Health Canada and subject to the rules and regulations promulgated by the FDA or Health Canada, any Law under which the FDA or Health Canada are authorized to promulgate rules and regulations, and/or any Law or other governmental guidance or requirement applicable to the storage, warehousing, packing and distribution of food or drug products, as the foregoing may be amended or updated from time to time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Radial shall not be liable for any requirements not expressly stated in the JPS.

1.4 Cooperation. The Company will provide Radial with the requested cooperation and assistance in connection with Radial’s provision of the Services. The Company shall provide Radial with all information, materials and data reasonably required by Radial. Additionally, to the extent that Radial is required to coordinate, integrate, communicate or otherwise interact with a Company E-Commerce Provider or other third-party designated by the Company, the Company will cause such third party to reasonably cooperate and assist Radial consistent with the foregoing. Radial shall not be responsible for a default or delay in performance of its obligations to the extent such default or delay is attributable to the failure of the Company, or any such third party. Throughout the Term, the Company will continue to operate, maintain and merchandise an e-commerce business in a manner designed to provide a positive customer experience and maximize Orders.

2. TERM, DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

2.1 Term. The initial term of the Agreement will be one year from the date of outbound launch of the Services. Thereafter, the Agreement will automatically renew for successive one-year periods (each, a “Renewal Term”), provided that either Party may terminate the Agreement in its entirety for convenience after the initial year by providing the other Party with at least sixty (60) days prior written notice. The initial term and all Renewal Terms are collectively referred to as the “Term”.

2.2 Launch Delay. The Parties will align on a Target Launch Date in the JPS. In the event that the Company delays the actual outbound launch of Services by more than sixty (60) days, Radial will have the unilateral right, upon notice to the Company, to (i) modify the terms of the Agreement (including, without limitation, the Fulfillment Fees) and (ii) terminate the Agreement.

2.3 Termination for Monetary Default.

2.3.1 If the Company is in breach of the terms governing the payment of any fees or other amounts due hereunder to Radial (each, a “Monetary Default”), Radial may (i) upon five (5) Business Days prior written notice, cease performing any or all Services hereunder until Company cures the Monetary Default, and/or (ii) upon fifteen (15) days prior written notice, terminate this Agreement in the event the Monetary Default remains unpaid as of such termination effective date. Any such termination shall not be deemed to limit any other remedies available to Radial.

2.3.2 A Monetary Default shall be deemed to be cured upon payment of any fees or other amounts due hereunder, except that where there have been three (3) or more instances of Monetary Default, in addition to paying all fees or other amounts due hereunder, in order to cure such Monetary Default, Company must also (i) issue to Radial an Irrevocable Letter of Credit with a bank reasonably acceptable to Radial in an amount sufficient to cover six (6) months of estimated billings that provides for Radial to draw proceeds sufficient to cover current billings without any separate approval, or (ii) provide a cash deposit to Radial (to be held in an imprest fund) sufficient to cover six (6) months of estimated billings and which may be drawn on by Radial in its reasonable discretion to satisfy current billings as they come due. In no event will the Company receive the benefit of any performance related remedies based on Radial's performance during any period of Monetary Default.

2.3.3 During any period that Radial is in physical possession of the Company's inventory or other assets, Company acknowledges that Radial's warehouseman's lien covers storage, transportation, insurance, labor or other charges, present or future, in relation to the products, and for expenses necessary for the preservations of the merchandise or reasonably incurred in their sale. In addition to other rights and remedies available to Radial, following termination for Monetary Default, Radial has the right, after reasonable notice to Company, to sell, or otherwise dispose of Company's merchandise or other assets in any manner Radial may think fit to satisfy its lien.

2.4 Termination for Other Breach. Either Party may terminate this Agreement if the other Party commits a material breach of its obligations thereunder and fails to remedy such breach within sixty (60) days of receipt of written notice from the nonbreaching Party describing in reasonable detail the breach and stating its intention to terminate the Agreement unless such breach is cured within the sixty (60) day cure period.

2.5 Effect of Termination. Upon the expiration or termination of the Agreement for any reason, (a) Radial's obligations to provide the Services shall automatically terminate, (b) each Party shall be responsible for payment (including any fees and expenses) of any monies due to the other Party for any period prior to the effective date of any such expiration or termination (which, with respect to fulfillment Services may entail prepayment of estimated fees for the final month and transition effort) and Radial shall be entitled to hold all merchandise in its possession until all outstanding invoices, charges, expenses and fees due to Radial are paid in full, (c) except as set forth in the foregoing subsection (b) of this Section, each Party in receipt, possession or control of the other Party's intellectual or proprietary property, information and materials (including any Confidential Information and IP Rights, as applicable) must return to the other Party, at the other Party's expense, (or at the other Party's written request, destroy) such property, information and materials, subject to the receiving Party's internal data retention requirements, and (d) with respect to fulfillment Services, the bills of lading (and attached packing list) shall be deemed to be the source of truth for merchandise sent by Radial to Company or its new provider and Company agrees to release Radial from all claims related to shrink arising due to allegations of receipt by Company or its new provider of merchandise not in line with the bills of lading (and attached packing list).

2.6 Survival. Notwithstanding any legal presumption to the contrary, the covenants, conditions, representations, indemnities, and warranties of this Agreement that by their terms are intended to survive termination, shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

3. PAYMENT.

3.1 Invoices. Radial shall invoice the Company on a weekly basis for Transportation Fees (if applicable) and such invoices will be payable within fifteen (15) days from the invoice date. Radial shall invoice the Company on a monthly basis for all other amounts and such invoices will be payable within thirty (30) days from the invoice date. All payments to Radial pursuant to the Agreement shall be made via wire transfer or ACH of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by Radial.

3.2 Costs and Taxes. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each Party will be responsible for all costs and expenses incurred by such Party in its performance of this Agreement. All payments for services performed hereunder are exclusive of Taxes. Any such Taxes shall be the Company's sole responsibility and the Company shall pay or reimburse Radial for any Taxes based on the Services provided; provided that this provision shall not apply to Taxes based on Radial's income, which shall be Radial's sole responsibility.

3.3 Currency. All payments to Radial will be made in the currency in which the fees and charges are established. To the extent that Radial incurs any currency conversion costs to convert a currency into another currency at the request of the Company, the Company agrees to reimburse Radial for any such conversion costs.

3.4 Late Payment. All invoices not paid by a Party when due shall bear interest from the due date to the date of actual payment at the rate equal to the lesser of 1½ percent per month or the maximum rate permitted by Law. In the event that a Party incurs any fees or costs (including without limitation, any reasonable attorneys' fees) in collecting outstanding balances and enforcing the payment provisions of this Agreement, the other Party shall be liable for all such fees and costs.

3.5 ECI Adjustment. Fees will be subject to a change (the "ECI Adjustment") based on an amount equal to the percentage increase in the "The Employment Cost Index (ECI) for total compensation (non seasonally adjusted) for private industry workers, service-providing industries" published by the "U.S. Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics" with reference to the line item for "Trade, transportation, and utilities, Transportation and warehousing" with respect to Fulfillment Fees, between the most recent September to September twelve (12) month period for which statistics are available compared to the index quoted for the immediately prior September to September twelve (12) month period. For the sake of clarity, the rate change in January of the year immediately following the current year will be calculated by the % change between the labor index in September of the year immediately prior to the current year and September of the current year. The most recent publication of the Employment Cost Index can be found at <https://www.bls.gov/news.release/eci.t05.htm>.

3.6 Treatment of Orders. The Company will be the seller of record of all merchandise and related services included in Orders. As between the Parties, the Company will be solely responsible for all Taxes imposed on sales pursuant to Orders.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

4.1 Ownership. As between the Parties, each Party retains all right, title, and interest in and to its own IP Rights. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to grant either Party any rights in the other Party's IP Rights, except for the limited licenses expressly granted herein.

4.2 Radial License. Provided that Company pays the applicable fees and complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Radial grants Company during the Term of this Agreement a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-assignable, non-sublicensable (except as set forth herein), personal, revocable and limited worldwide license solely to (a) utilize the integration with Radial's technology solution into Company's application in order to deliver Order Information to Radial and receive data and Services from Radial; and/or (b) use the Radial web portal (if applicable) to access the Radial Services and query data.

Company grants Radial during the Term of this Agreement a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-assignable, non-sublicensable (except as set forth herein), personal, revocable and limited worldwide license to use the Customer Information as reasonably necessary for Radial to perform the Services.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA SECURITY

5.1 "Confidential Information" means all nonpublic information provided by or on behalf of a party or its Affiliates that is designated as confidential or that, given the nature of the information or the circumstances surrounding its disclosure, reasonably should be considered as confidential. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the terms of this Agreement and the documentation, specifications and manuals related to the Services shall be the Confidential Information of Radial, and the Customer Information shall be the Confidential Information of Company. In addition, for purposes hereof, information regarding third party clients of Radial will be treated as Confidential Information of Radial. Each party will protect the Confidential Information of the other party from misappropriation and unauthorized use or disclosure, and at a minimum, will take precautions at least as great as those taken to protect its own confidential information of a similar nature. Without limiting the foregoing, and except as set forth herein, the receiving party will: (i) use such Confidential Information solely for the purposes for which it has been disclosed; and (ii) disclose such Confidential Information only to those of its employees, agents, consultants, and others who have a need to know the same for the purpose of performing this Agreement and who are informed of and agree to a duty of nondisclosure. The receiving party may also disclose Confidential Information of the disclosing party to the extent necessary to comply with applicable law or legal process or to enforce its rights hereunder. Either party will be entitled to seek preliminary and/or permanent injunctive relief from any violation or threatened violation of this Section 5 without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting any bond or other security.

5.2 Data Security. The Company, through the Company E-Commerce Providers, and Radial will each maintain and implement commercially reasonable information and data security guidelines for maintaining security controls as it relates to Customer Information. At a minimum, such information security guidelines shall include (A) a requirement that such Party comply, in all material respects, with applicable Laws, (B) a plan to assess and manage system failures, (C) a regular assessment of data security risks, with adjustments made to the data security program to reduce such risks, and (D) notice and incident response procedures. In addition, each Party shall comply with the security requirements described in Exhibit A attached hereto. The Company will cause the Company E-Commerce Providers to comply with each of the above obligations as it relates to the security and operation of the Company's e-commerce site(s).

6. INDEMNIFICATION

In connection with any such claim, (i) Radial will give Company prompt notice of such claim; provided, however, that failure to provide such notice shall not relieve Company from its liabilities or obligations hereunder; (ii) Company will have sole control over the defense and settlement of the claim; and (iii) Radial may cooperate with Company at Company's sole cost and expense, in connection with the defense and settlement of the claim.

7. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND WARRANTY

Any prohibited assignment shall be null and void.

10. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement is the complete and exclusive agreement between the parties, which supersedes all proposals or prior agreements, oral or written agreement, and all other communications between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof. No purchase order, other ordering document or any hand written or typewritten text which purports to modify or supplement the Agreement shall be of any effect. Except as contained in a writing signed by both parties, all such proposed variations or additions are objected to and shall have no force or effect.

11. CONFLICT. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of these Standard Terms and the provisions of the FSA or JPS, the provisions of these Standard Terms shall prevail unless there is an explicit reference in the FSA or JPS showing the parties' mutual intention to override a specific term or condition of these Standard Terms.

12. AMENDMENT. No terms of this Agreement may be amended without the written consent of both parties; provided that Radial may amend these Standard Terms from time to time by providing written notice to Company or by posting the amended terms on the Radial website and such amended Standard Terms will be effective and binding upon the Company as of the commencement of the next Renewal Term.

For the sake of clarity, payment obligations will not be excused pursuant to this Section.

14. GENERAL. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to any principles that provide for the application of the law of another jurisdiction. The United Nations Convention for the International Sale of Goods is excluded in its entirety. The section headings herein are provided for convenience only and have no substantive effect on the construction of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable, this Agreement shall be construed without such provision.
